Pickett Lebrat duet
laptop organe résonnant cello

Cellule de Bass is a research-creation project whose goal is to achieve an audio anatomy of the body.

Soizic Lebrat and Jenny Pickett are developing a sonic material in relation with the organic resonances of their bodies and propose a collaborative exploration of the human body through audio composition and inviting artists to join them.

Soizic Lebrat

Artist musician, cellist. Lives in Nantes.

Having trained as a classical musician (1st prize conservatory) and musical historian (Ph.D.) Soizic Lebrat extends her practices as an interpreter to that of improviser and composer, and develops sound research-creation arrangements (Ope1000, La Fabrique de musique). She plays solo (Bleu solo) and is passionate about music and transdisciplinary collaborations either casual and on a more regular basis. She has performed with Hedy Boubaker, Sophie Agnel, Jean-Marc Foussat, Joëlle Léandre, Mickaël Nick, Guylaine Cosseron, Guillaume Séguron, Isabelle Duthoit, Didier Petit, Jenny Pickett ...
